Texas Pedal Tours provides a historic tour of Galveston with a Twist of Entertainment and Exercise

GALVESTON, Texas (May 25, 2016) – Texas Pedal Tours has quickly become a new, unique sightseeing party shuttle of its kind. This eye-catching pedal-shuttle offers tours with a combination of entertainment and exercise. The luxurious pedal deck offers extra comfortable seating for 15 people, USB phone charging stations, Video/ DVD display and a cool misting system for hot summer days.

The Texas Pedal Tours shuttle, graphics and logo truly capture the essence of Texas. “The United States flag on the side of the shuttle is to honor all military, law enforcement and first responders who proudly protect the freedom that allowed us to build our dream,” said Jeff Longmire veteran and owner of Texas Pedal Tours.

Texas Pedal Tours offers a variety of public tours and private tours. A popular tour is the Taste of Galveston & the World offering tourists the opportunity to visit a variety of wonderful eateries in downtown Galveston. Each customer is guaranteed a smooth comfortable ride always lead by a fun loving Chauffeur and Host.

Texas Pedal Tours is easily located at the entry of Pier 21 just outside of Nonno Tony’s Seafood Kitchen and next to Baywatch Dolphin Tours. For more information about Texas Pedal Tours please visit them on their website at www.texaspedaltours.com, by calling 1-877-TXPEDAL, visiting their Facebook page, or by emailing them at texaspedaltours@gmail.com.

About Mitchell Historic Properties

Mitchell Historic Properties oversees Galveston properties owned by the Cynthia and George Mitchell family, including three hotels, The Hotel Galvez & Spa, The Tremont House, and Harbor House Hotel & Marina, as well as, commercial and residential properties located downtown and at Pier 21® along Galveston’s historic harbor. The Mitchell’s ongoing preservation of Galveston’s historic downtown helped spark the resurrection of The Strand National Historic Landmark District and Pier 21® as a tourist destination. “The Mitchell family shares a deep appreciation for Galveston’s heritage,” said Grant Mitchell, President of MHP, “and we remain inspired by the vision of my parents. The buildings they saved speak to us as much as they did to them. My family is firmly dedicated to preserving my parents’ legacy.” For leasing information, visit www.MitchellHistoricProperties.com or call (409) 761-4110.
